Why Partner with Us

VERA KOSLOVA FU

PRESIDENT

The Australian Society of Dermal Clinicians

The Australian Society of Dermal Clinicians is a growing and dynamic professional community of dermal clinicians and dermal therapists. We are a member organisation of leading practitioners, business owners and decision-makers from clinical practice, education, research, and policy development.

Together we work with a common focus to support and guide the profession to ensure standards and safety in the provision of skin health services. Our industry partners and sponsors share this vision with a mutual commitment to the improvement of the profession and industry through promoting safety and standards in patient care.

Education

Providing ongoing professional education and guidance regarding formal and informal pathways for education.

Safety

We advocate on behalf of our members, industry representatives and consumers to ensure standards of safety and ethical practice.

Support

We are a collaborative community of clinicians, educators, researchers and industry partners working to increase recognition of the profession.

About our Members

The Australian Society of Dermal Clinicians (ASDC) is a not-for-profit professional association for Dermal Clinicians, Dermal Therapists, and industry associates. The ASDC is a collaborative professional community of practitioners, educators, researchers, and industry representatives who specialise or have a special interest in skin health, integrity, and the clinical management of skin conditions, disorders, and disease.

The ASDC encourages research and evidence-based, best practices to achieve optimal outcomes for patients. We also advocate on behalf of our members, industry representatives, and consumers in maintaining standards of safety and ethical practice.

Our annual educational event, SKINCON is an intimate, boutique conference opportunity that attracts up to 200 delegates through high-quality educational and networking opportunities. Sponsorship packages are limited to increase value for sponsors and face to face time with delegates. Our attendees are the end users of your technology and products and SKINCON is a valuable opportunity to educate them about your brand and innovations. The event schedule provides multiple opportunities to network and make connections with delegates including face-to-face workshops, exhibitor hall and virtual exhibitor stands. as well as the social events

Meet Our Team

ASDC events are supported by a team of dedicated individuals from the ASDC general board and the education board as well as volunteers from our conference organising committee. Below are some of the members of this team that you will be working with you at various points of your sponsorship journey to achieve maximum benefit from your package inclusions

Packages

Packages for sponsorship for 2025 include partnerships with benefits to our participating companies all year round. The ASDC aims to provide value and quality in the participation experience for all involved. Our events are targeted and intimate, so packages are limited. Below is a snapshot, with the full list of inclusions on the next pages.

Partner Packages

The partner packages provide maximum exposure at SKINCON and benefits beyond the conference with opportunities for the ASDC to work with you to increase exposure of your brand to our members all year round.

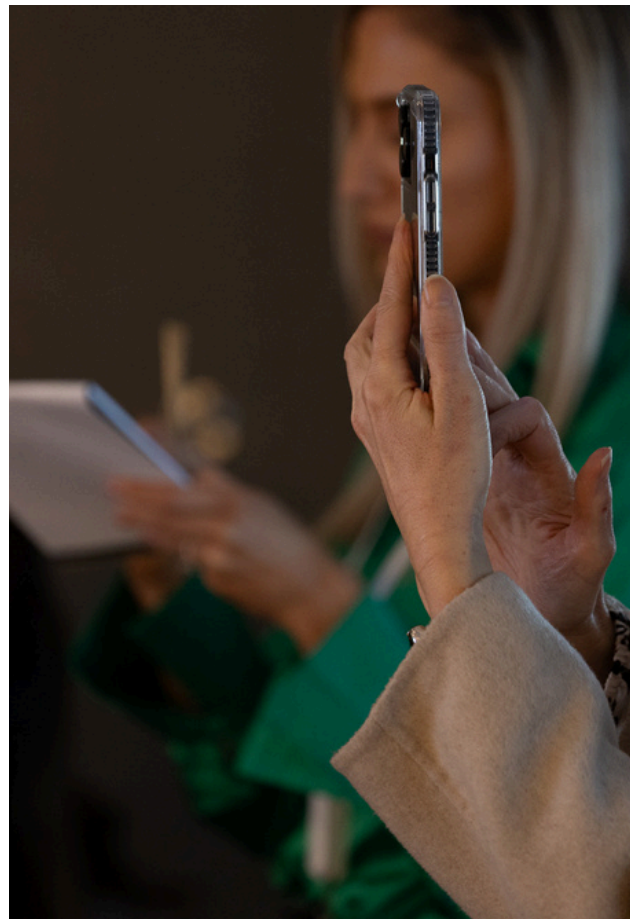

Workshop Sponsor

The workshop sponsorship packages provide you with face-to-face quality time with delegates at one of our education meets throughout the year. These events increase exposure to your brand and provide opportunities for our members to maintain clinical currency.

Exhibitor

As an event exhibitor you will have the opportunity to increase awareness of your brand, products and equipment by connecting with delegates during registration, breaks, lunch and during the networking drinks at one of our events.

SKINCON SPONSORSHIP

12-14 SEPTEMBER
2025

SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

Event Schedule

In 2025 the SKINCON program aims to take full advantage of all that Melbourne has to offer to provide a more immersive and interactive experience with opportunities to gain new knowledge and maintaining clinical currency in the varied and emerging sub-disciplines of dermal practice.

SKINCON25

Friday- Networking

On Friday we kick off SKINCON25 with a social event. You can meet and catch up with colleagues and friends both old and new before the formal program begins. A great way to settle in before the scientific program begins on Saturday.

Saturday- Scientific Plenary and Exhibition

Saturday concentrates on deep diving into educational updates, current and emerging challenges as well as innovations in dermal practice. Attendees will gain insight into how to manage skin conditions with the latest research on clinical protocols and strategies

Sunday - Interactive Workshop Training

Sunday is a day of interactive training workshops so that you can see the latest tools and techniques in action. A great way to stay up to date on what's new and improved or learn skills that you would like to implement in your practice.

Event Highlights

This year's event is unique for the ASDC and builds on learnings from previous events. This includes a two day program with both keynote educational talks and more intimate educational demonstration workshops to provide an opportunity to update in areas of clinical currency.

Interactive Sponsored Workshops

Companies that choose the workshop sponsorship packages are able to participate in a high-value educational opportunity for delegates and quality lead generation activity for companies. To increase your exposure to delegates, each workshop is offered several times which also ensures that delegates don't miss out on all the offered workshops.

Networking Opportunities

All sponsor representatives will have quality time during the event with delegates in the exhibitor hall during registration, breaks, and lunch each day. The evening networking events are hosted by the ASDC and are an opportunity to mingle and connect including attending presenters, sponsors, students and professionals from our industry sector.

The ASDC SKINCON is well-known for its high quality educational keynote presentations from high impact professionals from Dermal Science & Therapy, Plastics, Dermatology, Nursing, Allied Health, Skin Cancer Medicine and Cosmetic Medicine.

Attendees from SKINCON25 overwhelmingly provided feedback that they were highly satisfied with SKINCON, would attend again and would recommend to others.

Terms and Conditions

Public acknowledgment: "We grant organisers permission to publicly acknowledge our sponsorship/exhibit participation on the event's website, social media platforms, and other promotional materials."

Logo and brand usage: "We grant organisers permission to use our company logo in event materials, including but not limited to the website, banners, brochures, and social media posts."

Media coverage: "We grant organisers permission to include our company name, representatives' interviews, and booth visuals in media coverage of the event, including press releases, news articles, and video recordings."

Contact info sharing: "We consent to the collection and sharing of our company's contact information, such as name, email, and phone number, with event attendees and other relevant parties. The name and contact number of your nominated representative may be provided to the conference organisers and education managers to assist with the planning and set up of education events, conference exhibitor space, and other promotional entitlements".

Indemnification: "As a sponsor, I hold the event organisers harmless from any claims, damages, or liabilities arising from my participation in the event. I understand I must have public liability and professional indemnity cover sufficient for the activities in which I am to participate including exhibition, demonstration, and public presentations that are performed by those representing us as a sponsor of this event

Security and safety: "I understand that as an exhibitor, we are responsible for the security and safety of our booth, products, and materials during the event. We will not display our products, services, and promotional materials beyond our designated booth space during the event"

Securing Sponsorship" Sponsorship registration is on a first-in, first-served basis and will only be secured once the applicable registration form, terms and conditions and full payment have been received. No sponsor will be permitted to enter the exhibition hall or be listed as a sponsor on the event website, advertising materials or conference program until registration, terms and conditions and full payment has been received".

Payment Methods: "Payments are preferred through the Whova application but on request can be made through PayPal and by direct bank transfer."

Exhibition Stand Allocation: "Exhibition space will be allocated on first in first served basis through the Whova application, and can be selected upon registration. No sponsor shall assign, sublet, or apportion the whole or any part of their sponsorship package except upon prior written consent of the Conference Managers.

Sponsorship monies will facilitate ASDC strategic projects, advertising, and education materials. They also contribute to the successful planning and promotion of the conference including workshops and networking events, in addition to subsidising the cost of management, communication, invited speakers, programs, and publications. Sponsorship monies are not expended on any entertainment incurred which is incidental to the activities of the conference.

Sponsorship entitlements including organisation logo on the ASDC website and other marketing material will be delivered upon receipt of the required deposit or full payment"

Cancellation Policy: "In the event of cancellation, a service fee of 30% of the sponsorship package cost applies for cancellations prior to July 30. No refunds will be made for cancellations after July 30, 2025. After sponsorship has been confirmed and accepted, a reduction in sponsorship is considered a cancellation and will be governed by the above cancellation policy".

Representative Event Passes: "Complimentary passes will be provided as indicated in sponsorship package benefits. Additional staff attending or assisting on the stand must purchase a pass. 30% discount is provided to sponsors for additional passes using the exhibitor promo code provided in your welcome pack"
